

One Hundred First Legislature - Second Session - 2010
Introducer's Statement of Intent
LB 853

---

Chairperson: Brad Ashford
Committee: Judiciary
Date of Hearing: January 20, 2010

The following constitutes the reasons for this bill and the purposes which are sought to be accomplished thereby:

LB 853 proposes to strike language found unconstitutional by the Nebraska Supreme Court in 2005.

In 2002, the legislature held a special session to address Nebraska's capital punishment sentencing scheme in light of a U.S. Supreme Court case, Ring v. Arizona. During the special session, language was adopted to clarify that the current penalty for Class I felonies, when the death penalty is not utilized, is life imprisonment without parole. Six sections of law were amended to add the words "without parole."

However, in 2005, the Nebraska Supreme Court, in State v. Conover, struck down the "without parole" language in two of the six sections where it had been added during the special session, holding that the changes were unconstitutional because they were outside the scope of the Governor's call, which related only to the Ring v. Arizona decision.

LB 853 simply strikes the phrase "without parole" in all six sections where it was inserted during the 2002 special session, thereby bringing the statutes into compliance with the Nebraska Supreme Court's decision.
